

Language Center Council

Terms of Reference:

- To approve the Center's work plan.
- To look into contracts and agreements concluded between the Center and other institutions, and submit its recommendations to the President.
- To submit to the President Suggestions and recommendations that aim at supporting the Center's activities, enhancing its performance and promoting its services.
- To review the Center's draft budget and submit it to the President through its Director for study and approval.
- To discuss the annual report or any other reports submitted by the Director.

Membership:

- The Director of the Center, Chair
- The Director of the Arabic Language and Literature Department
- The Director of the English Language and Literature Department
- A representative of one of the University's faculties
- A representative of one of Jordan's public universities