

Vision

Our vision is excellence in quality of accounting education and scientific research to occupy a high position at regional and international level

Mission

The Department of Accounting works to provide its graduates with: a broad-base of accounting education to prepare them for life-long learning; professional growth throughout their careers for a competitive business environment; expertise to maintain strong ties with the business community, especially with those in the accounting profession. Fulfilling this mission requires the faculty to maintain continuous intellectual growth, keep abreast of current developments of accounting education, and to provide the foundation for further study and service to the profession.

Benchmarks for Department of Accounting

1. Demonstrate an understanding of accounting principles and practices that will allow them to record, analyze and communicate financial information useful to owners, managers and other stakeholders.
2. Identify the roles played by accountants in society providing and ensuring the integrity of financial and other information.
3. Prepare financial statements that comply with IAS & IFRS.
4. Uses computerized accounting software and understand the role of AIS in value creation in a business organization.

5. Demonstrate proficiency in tax policy and Jordanian income tax law and able to explain the importance of compliance for individuals and enterprises.
6. Conduct a thorough financial analysis and provide appropriate recommendations.
7. Understand generally accepted auditing standards and apply the knowledge in an audit simulation.

Objectives

1. Cultivate transferable skills such as verbal and written communication, teamwork, leadership, research and demonstrate use of the current accepted technical language of accounting and accounting practices.
2. Recognize the potential of emerging technologies and the globalizations aspects in the context of modern day business practice and acquire a spirit of life-long learning.
3. Recognize and analyze ethical and regulatory problems, choose a resolution, support an ethical choice in accounting situations and build self-confidence and problem solving abilities in a variety of work situations.
4. Analyze a wide range of accounting problems, provide a suitable rationale of the analysis, provide solutions through suitable text, diagrams, quantitative illustrations, simulations etc; and communicate effectively with peer groups about professional and accounting matters
5. Apply accounting knowledge in new and unfamiliar circumstances through a conceptual understanding of accounting practices. Apply financial and management accounting techniques to practical situations.
6. Conduct an audit and prepare auditing report for different organizations.
7. Detailed aims of research:
 - a. Enrich curriculum design, content and organization research activities.
 - b. Provide incentives for staff members to conduct relevant research on areas of accounting.