

PHILADELPHIA UNIVERSITY

Faculty Of Engineering & Technology

Department Of Architecture

Students Work

Contact Information

TEL: 009624799000

FAX: 009626470040

P.O.BOX: 19392 - Amman - Jordan

E mail: info@philadelphia.edu.jo

ABOUT US

The Department of Architecture is equipped with new up-to-date educating facilities and programs offering a B.Sc. degree in Architectural Engineering after the completion of 165 credit hours

PROGRAMME MISSION

PM1 Educate students for effective practice in architecture

PM2 Provide up-to-date architectural design skills and knowledge for a wide variety of profession role in private, public practice and prepare student for graduate study

PM3 Offer a curriculum comprised of a diverse and balanced set of courses and experiences

PM4 Impart a variety of analytical and synthetic skills and knowledge in areas relevant to architecture: visual, and sensorial, and manual acivities, building construction technology, design, theory, history and criticism, human dynamic, .planning, landscape and communication

PM5 Supplement sound training by nurturing the whole person within an understanding of architectural engineering as aboard humanistic and scientific discipline

PM6 Produce architects able to meet demands of a changing profession, and whose technical skills will be complemented by personal vision, ethical persuasiveness and entrepreneurial drive

PM7 (mutual respect, corporation and communication community service and leadership)

PM8 Developing critical thinking and creative work in order to supply the community workforce with highly eligible Architectural Engineers

PM9 To be committed to the goal of changing the world for the better through the power and application of ideas, knowledge, professional and ethical values

FIELD TRIP

GRADUATION JURY

EXHIBITION

