Course Coordinator: Dr. Dima Malahmeh

Course Description

This course consists of 3 hours a week spent at the Language Centre's lab. This course aims at training students to listen to details and infer meaning from context. The course also aims at developing students' conversational skills in various topics by working in small groups for discussions. It also aims at developing advanced oral skills through listening to various types of conversations, arguments, etc. Students should extract meaning by listening to details.

Moreover, various exercises given to students and many conversational and interactive tasks will be used in order to encourage them to practice summarizing the main ideas they listen to.

In addition to that, students are highly encouraged to express their opinions on and attitudes towards various topics raised in the classroom. They are also encouraged to express their agreement or disagreement with their colleagues' ideas and viewpoints. Further, each student should prepare a presentation on some topics which are given to them by the lecturer.

Furthermore, there will be a library visit during which students will learn how to search and find books in the library. In addition to that, you will learn how to search online databases such as EBSCO, Science Direct, etc.

Course Policies:

1. Absence from lectures and /or tutorials shall not exceed 15%. Seven absences are permitted on Sundays / Tuesdays / Thursdays and five absences on the lectures taught on Mondays and Wednesdays. Exceeding this limit without a medical or emergency excuse acceptable to and approved by the Dean of the relevant college /faculty will result in failing the course.
2. Coming late to lectures will not be tolerated. If a student comes to class once attendance has been taken, he/she is allowed to attend, but will be considered absent.
3. Students should independently do their homework, presentations and projects. Any work submitted or presented must be their own work. Any reliance on previous students' work is considered cheating.
4. Plagiarism or stealing other people's ideas or viewpoints and claiming that they are your own without acknowledging them is considered a serious misdemeanor. Depending on plagiarism will result in course failure.
5. Participation is vital in classrooms. It is not only coming to class; it also requires preparing the material in advance, doing the required homework, and being active in the classroom, etc.
6. Make-up exams will be offered for valid reasons if only they are accepted by the Dean.

Protection of Copyright

Publications in all forms require permission from the copyright owner in advance. You are not allowed to reproduce, store in a retrieval system, or transmit, in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording or otherwise, without the prior permission of the publisher or a license from the Copyright Licensing Agency Limited. (www.cla.co.uk).

Students are expected to respect and uphold the standards of honesty in all their activities. Any cheating or plagiarism will result in disciplinary action to be determined by the instructor based on the severity and nature of the offense.

- Avoiding Plagiarism

Plagiarism is a serious academic offense that will result in your failing the course. Learning notes by heart and repeating the information word by word in the exam is a type of plagiarism.

Documentation and Academic Honesty

Students are expected to complete all homework, papers and projects independently (unless otherwise specified); any work must be yours and yours alone. Working together for anything other than data collection, relying on students' work from previous semesters and/or plagiarizing published research is considered cheating.

The APA citation style illustrated below refers to the rules and conventions applied by the American Psychological Association for documenting sources used by researchers in their writing. It necessitates using both in-text and a reference list. It is widely used in psychology, education, business and the social sciences.

The information below is taken from Lipson's (2011) guide book to citation styles.
