Attendance Policy (See Article 8 of the University regulation Guideline)

Attendance will be taken by the instructor at the beginning of each class. On-time and regular attendance is necessary for you to successfully achieve a good mark. Habitual tardiness is considered to be rude and disruptive behavior. An absence is recorded for any reason the student fails to attend class. However, an accumulation of 15% absentia of the total module's hours result in that student will be withdrawn from the module by the module's instructor.

Module policy requests

The instructor of the Module is the last person to enter and the first to leave lecture room. Therefore, students will not be permitted to attend the lecture once the lecture has started.

Cell phones or beepers are not allowed to be on in the lecture room unless are on a silent alarm. If you receive a cell phone call in the lecture, please leave the lecturer room to carry on your conversation out of courtesy for fellow students. However, you have to bear in mind that you will not be able returned back to the lecture.

Expected Workload

On average the student is expected to spend at least (3) hours per week of self-studying for this module. The student will be expected to spend 1 hour for reading the lecture's topic before the lecture's due time and half an hour for revising of the lecture.

From time to time I will give you a quiz to examine how well you are prepared for the lecture, in which it will be counted in your total average of the module.

My role is to help you to understand the module's material, so pleas ask if you are unclear about anything.
