

Attestation

With reference to the first agreement concluded between the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO), and The European Commission on (3/10/2002) No. (B7-4100/2000/2165-084P510) and its annexes, the second agreement on (11/6/2003) No. (3250006442) concluded between UNESCO and Philadelphia University (PU), and the Memorandum of Understanding signed with the UNESCO office /Iraq on (22/06/2011), and to highlight its role in offering its services as a non-profit center in PU during the preceding eight years, the general status of Avicenna Virtual Center is as follows:

- 1- A leading and a distinguished center for E-learning, the development and the production of E-courses nationality and regionally.
- 2- A training center for faculty members nationally and regionally in E-learning in accordance with the pedagogical model adopted by Avicenna Virtual Center / UNESCO.
- 3- A specialized center that organizes periodic and advanced E-learning courses for faculty members as well as technicians on the national and the regional levels.
- 4- The sole center responsible for following up all activities and events pertinent to E-learning such as the training and the development of E-learning courses in coordination with the University President.

It is also responsible for concluding bilateral and multilateral agreements in its capacity as one of the Avicenna Centers Network.

President

M. Awwad

Mohammad Amin Awwad ,Ph.D.

Date: 10/09/2013