

Pharmacognosy

Quiz 1,A

Date: 8/11/15

Name:

Class Time: 9:10-10:00

Choose the correct answer in the following questions:

1) Which is false:

- a. The alphabetical system of classification is popular in the pharmacopoeias.
- b. An advantage of the taxonomical system of classification is that it is devoid of ambiguities.
- c. The pharmacological classification is decreasing in use.
- d. Leaves and seeds are examples of organized drugs.

2. Choose the correct answer:

- a. A naturalized plant is the one that lives in its home region.
- b. The content of active constituents for the same plant may differ according to day and night.
- c. Continuous rain does not have any effect on the productivity of certain plants.
- d. Most of drugs are taken from the wild.

Answer true or false and correct the false answer:

3. Controlled drugs are preferably controlled to prevent drug abuse.

4. Seeds are preferably collected when they are mature before the fruits have opened.

5. Mention an advantage of the taxonomical system of classification of plant drugs.