

Pharmacognosy & Phytochemistry

Quiz 1, B

Date: 24-3-2016

Class: 9,10 – 10,00

Name:

Student Number:

1. An advanced drug is:

- a. A dried drug which was mixed with other substances to increase efficiency.
- b. A crude drug that was submitted to mechanical or physical processes.
- c. An extracted drug without physical evaluation.
- d. A drug that was adulterated by admixture in advance manner.

Answer with true or false, and correct the false answer:

- 2. Solvent should be non-volatile to increase its saturation to the drug to be separated.
 - 3. Volatile oil production increases upon exposure of the plant to higher temperature.
 - 4. Mention one reason of cultivation.
-

- 5. Mention the name of a plant that prefers high altitude.